[1878, Oct. 22]

Grand Hotel

New York City.

To the Rt. Reverend

William Rollinson Whittingham, D.D.,

Bishop of Maryland

Orange - N.J.

My Dear Father in God, -

It is due to you that I should make this communication respecting my affairs during the past year. - On the first of October 1877 the Cuba Mission was in debt to me to the amount of $1369.36. - I had paid all the bills incurred by the Mission - so that there was no indebtedness at Havana - or at any point in Cuba when we were prosecuting New York - and this amount of $1369.36 - was due to me as balance of salary and I was sorely in need of it. - It was owing by persons in the United States and was York Collected until some months afterwards partly by my own Effort and partly through the instrumentality of Bishop Hare - who Collected about 1/3 of the Amount from individual debtors - who had made pledges